Company Profile

Established in 1980, Aidata Corp. has since proven itself to be a leading manufacturer of computer and office accessories. Throughout the evolution of digital media, our constant reinventions and innovations have succeeded in creating accessories that would allow for increased efficiency and comfort. In the face of competition within the market, we never fail to place quality as our top priority, meeting the expectations and upholding the standard of "Made in Taiwan" label, as well as passing stringent factory inspections from large North American and European retailers. At Aidata, we put excellent quality and great innovation within your reach.
